COBRA/PYTHON FRONT SIGHTS - TALL GREEN FIBER OPTIC SIGHT FOR COLT PYTHON REVOLVER

Eye-Catching Front Sights Are Easy To See in Low Light

These original Colt factory replacement Cobra Front Sights bring modern low-light sighting technology to Colt's new revolver. They are correct replacement for damaged front fiber optic or Tritium sights OR excellent upgrades if your Cobra came out of the box with a plain "iron" front sight. The Fiber Optic Front Sight's open top lets its red fiber optic rod gather and concentrate available ambient light, so the sight appears to glow and naturally attracts your eye. The self-illuminating Tritium in the Tritium Night Sight's insert produces a soft glow to help you achieve a quick sight picture in really low light, while the eye-catching white ring around the insert attracts the eye in daylight. With either sight, the result is you pick up the sight faster and get it on the target faster for improved shooting performance almost any lighting conditions. Genuine Colt factory part DOES FIT NEW MODEL COLT PYTHON Bright RED fiber optic rod Fits Cobra revolver front sight dovetail Rugged steel sight housing with rich blued finish Front sight ONLY Much to the joy of Colt fans all over the world, the Cobra represents the company's long-awaited return to series revolver production. But preferring a classic wheelgun as your go-to sidearm doesn't mean you have to settle for a traditional plain black front sight. Get your Colt Cobra a genuine factory replacement front Fiber Optic or Tritium sight, and update your revolver to 21st century capabilities.
