

48" DOUBLE SUPPRESSOR TACTICAL RIFLE CASE - BULLDOG CASES

48" DOUBLE SUPPRESSOR TACTICAL RIFLE CASE BLACK

BULLDOG CASES 48" DOUBLE SUPPRESSOR TACTICAL RIFLE CASE The Bulldog Cases 48" Double Suppressor Tactical Rifle Case is designed for shooters who run compact or mid-length rifles and need expanded storage for multiple suppressors or muzzle devices. Its reinforced nylon exterior and padded interior protect optics-equipped rifles during transport, while the 48" length provides a secure fit for AR-15s, PCCs, and tactical carbines. The full-length zipper opens flat for easy loading, and the balanced carry handles make it practical for range days, training, or vehicle transport. The Double Suppressor configuration gives you increased capacity, including a dedicated heat-resistant suppressor pouch rated up to 600°F, allowing you to stow a hot can immediately after shooting. Additional exterior pockets keep magazines, tools, and accessories organized, making this case a durable, efficient solution for shooters who want more storage without adding unnecessary bulk.

Safety Instruction Guide for the Bulldog Cases 48" Double Suppressor Tactical Rifle Case

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Bulldog Cases 48" Double Suppressor Tactical Rifle Case. This guide provides essential safety information and instructions to ensure safe use and maintenance of your rifle case. Please read this guide carefully to understand how to use the product safely and effectively.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the rifle case is used solely for its intended purpose: transporting firearms and related accessories.
- Regularly inspect the rifle case for any signs of wear or damage. Do not use if damaged.
- Keep the rifle case out of reach of children and unauthorized users.
- Always ensure that firearms are unloaded before placing them in the case.
- Avoid exposing the case to extreme temperatures, moisture, or chemicals that may damage the materials.
- Report any unsafe conditions or incidents to the appropriate authorities.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- When loading or unloading firearms, ensure you are in a safe environment, away from people and pets.
- Always check that the zippers and closures are securely fastened before transport.
- Use the heatresistant suppressor pouch only for cooled suppressors. Do not place hot suppressors directly into the pouch.
- Be cautious when carrying the case; ensure that it is balanced and that you have a firm grip on the handles.
- Avoid overloading the case with excessive weight, as this may compromise its integrity and your ability to carry it safely.
- If you notice any unusual smells, discoloration, or physical damage, cease use immediately and consult a professional.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Loading the Rifle Case

- Open the fulllength zipper to access the interior.
- Place your unloaded firearm in the designated compartment, ensuring it fits securely.
- Utilize the heatresistant suppressor pouch for any suppressors after they have cooled down.
- Securely close the zipper after loading to prevent the contents from shifting during transport.

2. Carrying the Rifle Case

- Use the dual wraparound carry handles for balanced transport.
- Ensure the case is not overly heavy before lifting.
- Carry the case with both hands for better stability and control.

3. Storing the Rifle Case

- Store the case in a cool, dry place when not in use.
- Avoid stacking heavy items on top of the case to prevent deformation.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the rifle case in accordance with local regulations regarding textile and nylon materials.
- If the case is no longer usable, consider recycling the materials if possible.
- Do not dispose of the case in regular household waste if it contains any hazardous materials.
